The Waters' Pianos are known as among the very best.—N. Y. Evangelist.

We can speak of the merits of the Waters' Pianos from personal knowledge as being of the very best quality.—Christian Intelligencer.

The Waters' Pianos are built of the very best and most thoroughly seasoned material.—Advocate and Journal.

Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store the very best assortment of Pianos, Melodeons and Organs to be found in the United States.—Graham's Magazine.

MUSICAL DOINGS.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not confused, with the flaming adeertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook the modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before Expositions and "honors" connected therewith were ever thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianofortes now in our residence (where it has stood for many years,) of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet-toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more than this, some of the best amateur players in the city, as well as several celebrated pianists, have performed on the same piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first-class instrument. Stronger endorsement we could not give.—Home Journal. jan15,'69.

The Chinese Government having (through the Hon. Anson Burlingame) conceded to this Company the privilege of connecting the great seaports of the Empire by submarine electric telegraph cable, we propose commencing operations in China, and laying down a line of nine hundred miles at once, between the following port s, viz:

	Population.
Canton	1,000,000
Macos	60,000
Hong-Kong	250,000
Swatow	200,000
Amoy	250,000
Foo-Chow	1,250,000
Wan-Chu	300,000
Ningpo	400,000
Hang Chean	1,200,000
Shanghai	1,000,000
Total	5,910,000

These ports have a foreign commerce of $900,000,000, and an enormous domestic trade, besides which we have the immense internal commerce of the Empire, radiating from these points, through its canals and navigable rivers.

The cable being laid, this company proposes erecting land lines, and establishing a speedy and trustworthy means of communication, which must command there, as everywhere else, the communications of the Government, of business, and of social life especially in China. She has no postal system, and her only means now of communuicating information is by couriers on land, and by steamers on water.

The Western World knows that China is a very large country, in the main densely peopled; but few yet realize that she contains more than a third of the human race. The latest returns made to her central authorities for taxing purposes by the local magistrate make her population Four hundred and Fourteen millions, and this is more likely to be under than over the actual aggregate. Nearly all of these, who are over ten years old, not only can but do read and write. Her civilization is peculiar, but her literature is as extensive as that of Europe. China is a land of teachers and traders; and the latter are exceedingly quick to avail themselves of every proffered facility for procuring early information. It is observed in California that the Chinese make great use of the telegraph, though it there transmits messages in English alone. To-day great numbers of fleet steamers are owned by Chinese merchants, and used by them exclusively for the transmission of early intelligence. If the telegraph we propose connecting all their great seaports, were now in existence, it is believed that its business would pay the cost within the first two years of its successful operation, and would steadily increase thereafter.

No enterprise commends itself as in a greater degree renumerative to capitalists, and to our whole people. It is of vast national importance commercially, politically and evangelically.

☞ The stock of this Company has been unqualifiedly recommended to capitalists and business men, as a desirable investment by editorial articles in the New York Herald, Tribune, World, Times, Post, Express, Independent, and in the Philadelphia North American, Press, Ledger, Inquirer, Age, Bulletin and Telegraph.

Shares of this company, to a limited number, may be obtained at $50 each, $10 payable down, $15 on the 1st of November, and $25 payable in monthly instalments of $2.50 each, commencing December 1, 1868, on application to Hoofland's Column.

YOU ALL
HAVE HEARD OF
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia.

Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.
THEY CURED YOUR FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or any thing like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are
The greatest known remedies for Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,
and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, stomach, or IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtueus are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best Blood Purifiers

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order, keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.
Yours Truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES TAOMPSON.
Judge of the Supreme Conrt of Pennsylvania.
PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,
Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined, but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eigth, below Coates Street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The Genuine have the signature of C. M. JACKSON on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

A MOTHER'S MANAGEMENT.

The dismal December night was closing, with starless gloom, over the spires and chimney tops of the city—the blinding mist of snow flakes was wreathing its white pall over all, and the wind, murmuring sadly through the streets, seemed to have an almost human wail in his moan.

"It's an ugly kind of a night," muttered Mr. Terryn to himself, as he buckled his fur closer round his neck, "and a wind fit to cut one in two.—Hallo! what's this?"

He had very nearly stumbled over something that looked like a bundle, crouching at the foot of a flight of steps, in the shadow of a ruinous old brick archway; but, as he checked himself abruptly, the bundle erected itself into somethig human in shape and looked at him through wild, human eyes.

"Who are you?" he demanded, on the impulse of the moment.

"Only me, sir—little Tess."

"Please give me a penny, sir!" cried the child, suddenly subsiding into the regular professional whine of her trade.

"Only a penny."

"Where do you live?"

"I don't live nowhere, sir—I skulks round in the alleys."

"Oh, you do, eh? and who takes care of you?"

"Took up?"

"Sent to the Island, sir."

"Are you a boy? or a girl?

(For the creature's tangled locks and ragged garb gave no clue to its sex.)

"I'm a girl, sir."

"You ought to be ashamed of yourself, begging in the streets," said Mr. Terryn, serverely. "Why don't you work?"

As he approached his own door a bright child's face peeped out between the curtain, and as Mr. Terryn entered the cheery sitting room, he could not but think with a remorseful pang of the shivering bundle of rags under the brick archway beyond.

"It's none of my business," he thought, "I dare say the police will pick the poor little elf up, and take her where she'll be better off.

But Mr. Terryn's conscience was less adamantine than he had given it credit for being. It pricked him sorely as he sat toasting his slippered feet before the bright embers—it whispered to him as he listened to the lullaby wherewith his wife was lulling the babe to sleep upon her breast. Had little Tess ever known a mother's care, or heard a mother's cradle song? And she could scarcely have been six years old, either.

"Where are you going, my dear?" questioned his wife, as he rose up suddenly.

"Out into the street. There was a—a child there—a little girl, crouching on some steps——."

"A child? Homeless? And such a night as this? Oh, Herbert, you should have brought her here!"

Five minutes afterwards Mr. Terryn was out in the driving whirlwinds of snow bending over the small stray who was huddled up, just where he had left her.

"Here- child where are you?"

But there was no answer. Little Tess was benumbed and stupified by the cold.

He lifted her up, a poor little skeleton wrapped in a miserable thin coating of rags, and feeling strangely light in his arms, and carried her home.—Mrs. Terryn met him at the door.

"Oh, Herbert, what a poor little starved wretch? Her hands are like bird claws!"

Charley looked on with breathless interest, at the process of feeding, warming and restoring some vitality to the torpid object.

When little Tess opened her eyes, it was to the glow of a warm fire and the mellow sparkle of gaslights.

"Am I dead?" cried the child, "and is this Heaven?"

"Poor little creature!" said Mrs. Terryn, bursting into tears.

"Tesora" her name proved to be—a sweet Italian synonym for the word "treasure," and a treasure she was, in gentle Mrs. Terryn's eyes, especially after her little babe was dead and buried.

"How Tesora grows?" said Mr. Terryn suddenly, on one day as the beautiful girl came in, rosy and smiling, from a walk.

"Why she is as tall as a grown woman!"

"She is a grown woman," said Mrs. Terryn, with a smile.

"How old is she?"

"Sixteen, day before yesterday!"

"Is it possible" said Mr. Terryn, thoughtfully. "How times slips away! Tesora sixteen? Why, then Charley must be twenty!"

"It is true, my dear said his wife, we are getting to be old people, now!"

"I wonder what will become of Tesora," said Mr. Terryn, musingly. "She would make a capital governess, her education has been so thorough, or—"

"Father" said Charles Terryn, resolutely, as he walked up in front of his father and stood with folded arms, "I can tell you what will become of Tesora! She is to be my wife!"

"Nonsense!" ejaculated Mr. Terryn.

"Charley," she said, when the indignant father had jerked out of the room, "don't waste your breath in arguing with your father. Argument never conquered yet, in such a case as this."

"But what am I to do?"

"Have you spoken to Tess yet?"

"No."

"Wait then let matters rest. I will manage it!"

So Mrs. Terryn gave little dinner parties and select soirees, and "brought out" Tesora, according to the regular programme. She made a sensation.—Mrs. Terryn had known that she would, Tesora was a belle—a queen of fashion. Suitors congregated around her.

"Well, Tess," said Mr. Terryn, one night—he was getting wondrously proud of his adopted daughter's success in the world of society—"are you going out to night?"

"Yes, papa."

"Whom with?"

"Colonel Randolph."

"I thought Charley had taken a box at the opera for you!"

"I promised Colonel Randolph first," said Tesora, languidly playing with her fan.

"And how about to-morrow night? I suppose Charley could get his tickets transferred."

"I am so sorry, sir, but I am engaged for to morrow night.

Mr. Terryn rose and walked restlessly up and down the room. He was a man much guided by opinion of his fellow-men. Tesora must be a treasure else why this competition among the young millionaires for her society!

"Look here, Tess—Charley will be so disappointed!"

"I can't help it. Let me see"—and she glanced at the tables—"Friday is the only evening I have disengaged."

"Fiddlestick!" muttered the old gentleman, uneasily. It seems to me you're getting to be a great belle, Miss!"

"Am, I papa!" said Tess, laughing. "But you see I am your own little girl still."

And she gave him a little coaxing kiss.

"My own little girl—yes—but what will you become when Colonel Randolph or Dayton L'Estrange, or some other of these scamps, takes you away from me!"

Tesora blushed until the rose on her cheek was like a carnation.

"They will not papa."

"Won't they? I am not altogether so sure of that."

But the next afternoon he came home from his office with a puzzled face.

"They have come, Tess!"

"What have come?"

"The offers of marriage—two of 'em, by Jupititer!—Colonel Randolph and Mr. Dupinier! What do you say, Tess?"

"I—I must think of it, papa."

"Very gentlemanly, I must say—both well off, substantial fellows, and profess to be desperately in love with my girl. But, Tess——"

"Well, sir?"

"You won't leave us, dear? Think how desolate the old house will be without you!"

Tesora was silent—her hand dropped.

"Father," said Mrs. Terryn, gently, "let the girl decide for herself. We have no right to stand between her and a home and a husband of her own."

"But she might have a home and a husband of her own here!" burst in Mr. Terryn. That is—I mean—Charley——"

"I have refused Charley, to-day!" said Tesora calmly.

"Refused Charley! And why?"

"Because I have reason to believe that his suit was pressed without the approval of his father. Oh, sir, could you think that, after all your kindness, could steal your son's duty away from you! I would rather die!"

"Spoken like yourself, Tess," said Mrs. Terryn, going to her and kissing her.

"Tess, do you love him?" eagerly questioned the father.

"That has nothing to do with the question, sir," she answered, reservedly.

"But I want to know," he insisted.

'I do love him, sir, then."

"And you have refused him only because I didn't approve!"

"Yes, sir."

"But I do approve, Tess! It would make me the happiest old father in the world, if I could call you both my children in real truth."

Charles Terryn rose from his seat and came eagerly forward.

"Tesora—dearest—you hear him! Once more I ask you to be my wife!"

And Tesora hid her face on his shoulder, weeping—but Tesora was very happy, nevertheless!

"But, my love," said Mrs. Terryn, softly, "what has wrought such a change in your sentiments?"

"I—I don't know," said the old gentleman, evasively. "I say Tess, what shall I tell the Colonel and Mr. Dupinier?"

"Tell them, sir," spoke up Charley, "that she has a previous engagement!"

And so the mother's management prevailed, and little Tess's first home was her last.

HOME POLITENESS.—Should an acquaintance tread on your dress, your best, your very best, and by accident tear it, how profuse you are with your "never minds—I don't think of it—I don't think of it—I don't care at all." If a husband does it he gets a frown, if a child it is chastised.

And these are little things, says you! They tell mightily on the heart, let us assure you, little as they are.

A gentleman stops at a friend's house, and finds it in confusion. "He don't see anything to apologize for—never thinks of such matters—everything is all right." Cold supper—cold room—crying children—"perfectly comfortable."

He goes home, his wife has been taking care of sick ones, and worked her life almost out. "Don't see why things can't be kept in better order—there never were such cross children before." No apologies except away from home.

Why not be polite at home? Why not use freely the golden coin of courtesy? How sweet they sound, those little words, "thank you," or "you are very kind." Doubly, yes, trebly sweet from the lips we love, when heart smiles make the eye sparkle with the clear light of affection.

Be polite to your children. Do you expect them to be mindful for your welfare, to grow glad at your approach, to bound away to your pleasure before your request is half spoken? Then, with all your dignity and authority mingle politeness. Give it a niche in your household temple. Only then will you have the truesecret of sending out into the world really finished gentlemen and ladies.

Again we say unto all—be polite,—Exchange.

SINGULAR SIMILARITY.

Oliver Wendell Holmes is a poet and a critic. We have read many of his effusions with great delight, and have many a time taken pleasurable occasion to season our heavier reading with the attic salt of the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table." After saying this, it is perhaps, needless to add that Holmes is one of our literary favorites, and it would, doubtless, surprise the reader considerably if we were to assert, just here, that we have discovered our much admired author in an act of plagiarism. We hope no one will become excited on reading this last sentence, for we have made no such assertion and do not intend making it. It is an easy matter to blast the fame of a writer by showing that he has made use of an expression or figure of speech, or, what is of still greater importance, an idea, which is supposed to be the exclusive property of some one who wrote before him. There is nothing new under the sun. There can be no plagiarism except that which is, on its face, deliberate and wilful theft. Each recurring spring time reproduces the flower, the leaf, the blade of grass, which sprang up under the creative genius of the sunshine of its predecessor. Yet it is not the same flower, leaf, or blade which grew in the same place the year before. As nature is not a plagiarist, neither is the poet who clothes the skeleton of an old idea in the flesh and blood of his own imagination.

We have been led to this course of remark by reading a poem recently published by Dr. Holmes, entitled "Bill and Joe," the first three stanzas of which read as follows:

"Come, dear old comrade, you and I
Will steal an hour from days gone by—
The shining days when life was new,
And all was bright with morning dew,—
The lusty days of long ago,
When you were Bill and I was Joe.

Your name may flaunt on titled trail,
Proud as cockerel's rainbow tail;
And mine as brief appendix wear
As Tam O'Shanter's luckless mare;
To-day, old friend, remember still
That I am Joe and you are Bill.

You've won the great world's envied prize,
And grand you look in people's eyes,
With HON and L. L. D.
In big, brave letters, fair to see,—
Your first, old fellow! off they go!
How are you, Bill? How are you, Joe?"

Doubtless, Dr. Holmes drew this picture from life. It is poetry, good poetry. But we remember seeing in the newspapers, some twelve years ago, a little verse written by Joseph Williams, Esq., formerly Chief Justice of Kansas, which contains the substance of the thought, and, perhaps, something more, of the stanzas above quoted. The history of that little verse is as follows: Joseph Williams and Jeremiah S. Black, (late Attorney General of the United States), were boys together in the county of Somerset, in this State. Beginning with the practice of the law at the Somerset bar, the lapse of years found the one a Chief Justice of a territorial court and the other Attorney General of the United States. In the spring of 1859, Judge Williams called upon Judge Black at the St. Nicholas Hotel, New York, but not finding him in, he left a note containing the following verse:

"O Jerry, dear Jerry, I've found you at last,
And memory burdened with scenes of the past,
Returns to old Somerset's mountains of snow,
When you were but Jerry and I was but Joe."

We print this only to show how an idea may be reproduced, in almost the same mode of expression as that before used, without intentional plagiarism on the part of the later writer. Were Edgar A. Poe living, he would not hesitate to pronounce Dr. Holmes guiity of literary theft; but he is dead, and none are left to wear his mantle.—Harrisburg Patriot.

IN A HORN.—One Christmas day, some years ago, some rather fast young fellows hired horses from a livery stable in the town of G——, and determined to have a good time generally. One of the horses never recovered from the effects of the ride, and the livery man sued the rider for the value of him. The lawyer for the plaintiff was an ex-judge. He was a good lawyer, but fond of his toddy. He was trying to prove by one of the witnesses that all were drunk, and commenced by asking him:

"Where did you stop first after leaving the livery-stable?"

"We stopped at Michael N——'s."

"Did you take a horn there?" asked the judge.

"Yes."

"Where did you stop next?"

"At the——Gardens."

"Did you take a horn there?"

"Yes."

"Where did you stop next?"

"At the Four-Mile house."

"Did you take a horn there?"

By this time the witness began to smell a rat. "Horn?" says he, "I want to know what has a horn got to do with this case. I suppose because you are a drinking kind of a fellow yourself you think that every other body is drunk."

You ought to have heard the explosion which shook the court room. The ex-judge did not ask the witness any more questions.—Exchange.

HOUSE AND FARM.

The Best Breeds of Cattle for a Farm.—The question which breed of Cattle is the most profitable to a farm, will depend on where the farm is located and the purpose of the farmer to supply a particular market, whether a milk, butter, or cheese diary; whether for raising stock for working oxen, or feeding for the butcher. These different purposes require different breeds of stock.

Within a convenient distance of a town or city, the milk business will yield the most money, clear profit. The butter business (fresh, in pound or half pound lumps,) next Cheese and firkin butter can be made at a greater distance from the market and brought in at any time.

For these purposes we recommend the Aldeyney and Ayrshires as real milk-producing machines, converting all the milk-producing food they are able to digest into the lacteal elemement. It is impossible to fatten them without first drying them up, and this is no easy matter. Their milk, too, is of the richest quality for either cream; butter or cheese.

In some sections of the country, where the farms are large, and stock raising are feeding is made a business, the short horn Durham and the Devonshire will be the most profitable; for taking on fat and weight of carcass, no other breed can compare with shorthorn, either for pure blood or grades.

For working oxen the Devons are superior on account of their activity—they are good feeders. We would by no means underrate the Devons and short-horn as milkers. Many of both breeds, as well as their crosses, prove to be excellent milkers; but we still adhere to the foregoing opinion, that the Alderneys and Ayrshires are their superiors in manufacturing milk out of a given amount of food. Some of our most discriminating dairymen differ in opinion as to which of these two breeds are the best milkers; on this account we have classed them together; but our preference, based upon our own judgment, is in favor of the Alderneys.

How to make Hens Lay in Winter.—J. L. Peabody, in the Prairie Farmer, says:

"Let me inform your readers of a plan to get hens to lay in winter, that I learned from a Kansas man, something over a year ago, and which I tried last winter with good success.—He told me if I would let my hens huddle together in some warm corner, and not let them roost, I should get plenty of eggs. I had about twenty hens; my hen-house was a rough shed, eight feet square, with a small window and door on the east. I took down all the roosting poles, leaving the nest-boxes only. With a few short boards I made a small shed about four feet square, on the south-side of the larger one, and covered it with cornfodder, (straw is better.) I made a hole for the hens to pass from the large house into the small one. The result was, my hens continued to lay all through the cold weather. You will have to drive them in a few times at first; they will soon learn to go in themselves. Put in wood ashes occasionally to keep them from vermin. There are a great many who are not able to build an expensive hennery, but any one can fix up a place like this in an hour or two, with very little expense."

Flowers in Winter.—If you would festoon your windows, scoop out tow middle-sized turnips, fill them with rich earth, and sow the seeds of the Thumbergia, bearing yellow flowers, and the Lobelia (compacta) bearing blue, and hang one on each side of the window. The former will run up and cling to the strings which support your hanging basket, while the latter will fall gracefully down, and you will have the pleasure of noting day by day just how each green leaflet appears and grows and spreads itself out to the air and light.

Scarlet Fever.—A correspondent of the Wilmington Commercial, writing from Kent county, where the scarlet fever has prevailed to an alarming degree, recommends as a cure for this terrible disease, that "the patient be greased with fat bacon, over the entire surface of the body." We have known the diseases to be cured by enveloping the patient in a warm poultice made of Indian meal. Both these remedies may be old, but a trial of either, or both, can do no harm, while your physician is hesitating as to what experiment he shall try to save the life of your child.

A Good Plum Pudding without Eggs.—One pound of raisins, half a pound of suet, one pound of flour, four ounces of bread crumbs, two table-spoonsful of molasses, one pint of milk, nutmeg and grated ginger to taste. Chop the suet very fine, mix it with the flour, add the bread crumbs, ginger and the raisins stoned, and mix the whole well together with the milk and molasses. Put into a pan or floured cloth, and boil it four hours.

Warm Bed for Pigs.—If pigs are kept warm and dry during the winter they will do much better for it. In building a straw stack, it is very well to provide a shelter at one side or end of the same. A pen may be built up at one side or end of the stack around and over the pen, leave a gap suitable for the pigs to pass in and out, and will make a delightful house for them, and they may sleep there warmly and comfortably in the coldest weather.

Cold in the Head.—Dr. Pollion of France says that cold in the head can be cured by inhaling hartshorn. The inhaling by the nose should be seven or eight times in five minutes.

Men can acquire knowledge, but not wisdom. Some of the greatest fools the world as known have been learned men.

Democratic Meeting.

The Democrats of Bedford county will assemble in MASS MEETING at the Court House, in Bedford, on MONDAY EVENING, FEB. 8, (Court week.)

A full turn out is requested, as business of importance will be laid before the meeting.

Several addresses will be delivered.

FIAT JUSTITIAE.

The Inquirer has published several editorials reflecting upon the extravagance of its party in the legislature, which seem to be more particularly leveled at the gentleman who represents this county in that body.

It is not our province to take up the cudgels for Mr. Longenecker. That is the duty of his friends in his own party. When the Inquirer asks for one man to stand up against the corrupt practices of the legislature, and when it says, "a very feeble voice might do so much as this and show the people who are responsible," it becomes the duty of the political friends of Mr. Longenecker to clear him of the imputation that he is not the man to resist the dishonest schemes of the majority and that he is not the voice to "show the people who are responsible."

But we would like to know why this one man is to deserve special blame? The increase of the number of pasters and folders and other "officers" of the legislature, was made a party measure by the radical majority in the two houses. The lash of the caucus was applied to every refractory member and the resolution increasing the force of parters and folders, etc., was put through under the whip and spur of the party leaders. Was Mr. Longenecker to vote against his party on this question? Doubtless he should have done so. We would have been gratified if he had. But the whole radical side of the house voted for the resolution, and Mr. Longenecker, taught in the school of unflinching opposition to everything democratic, of course was found voting with his own party and against the Democrats. His vote was wrong, but the whole radical membership voted as did Mr. Longenecker.

Now, therefore, we are glad to find that the Inquirer is inclined to blame its party as well as the individual member at whom it aims its denunciations. It says, "Where none object, all alike are guilty." That is to say, Mr. Longenecker and the entire radical party in the legislature are alike guilty. But when the ides of October come, the Inquirer will be found battling as usual to elect the very same sort of men to the legislature as those who now control that body. Mark the prediction!

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

We call attention to the call of the Chairman of the Democratic County Committee, published in this issue, for a meeting of the Democracy to be held in the Court House, on Monday evening of the coming court week. Business of importance to the party will be transacted by the meeting, and we hope, therefore, that there will be a full attendance. A Governor, Judge of the supreme Court, and an important county ticket are to be chosen next fall, and it behooves the friends of the Democratic cause to see to it that they enter the contest under proper standard-bearers and with perfect organization. New York and New Jersey have been redeemed by the election of Democratic Governors.—Let Pennsylvania be placed side by side with them in the list of regenerated states.

Not satisfied with the enormous burden of debt now piled upon the shoulders of the people, the Radicals have ordered, received, and paid for plans for a new building for the War Department, which will cost not less than two million of dollars—the building we mean, not the plans. It strikes us very forcibly that if the present buildings were sufficient for the business of the department during the entire war, they ought to answer all its purposes now, and for years to come, more especially in view of the fact that the army is to be cut down to the peace standard shortly.

James A. Bayard and Thomas F. Bayard, father and son, were elected United States Senators from Delaware the other day; the father to fill an unexpired term, and the son for a full term of six years. This is the first instance of the kind on record, we believe, and attests how the noble services of the Bayards are appreciated by the gallant Democracy of little Delaware.

UNITED STATES SENATORS.

Hon. John Scott was elected United States Senator, by the Legislature of this State, on Tuesday. The Democrats voted for Hon Wm. A. Wallace. In the Senate the vote stood, Scott 17, Wallace 13; in the House, Scott 61, Wallace 38.

The Legislature of Delaware elected James A. Bayard United States Senator, to serve until March 4th, and his son, Thomas F. Bayard, to serve six years from that date.

The Legislature of Maine elected Hannibal Hamlin, laying Morrill on the shelf. The Democrats voted for A. G. Gould.

New York elected Governor Fenton, shelving Morgan. The Democrats voted for Senator Murphy.

Missouri elected Schurz, the infidel, the Democrats supporting John Phelps.

Sumner has been re-elected from Massachusetts.

Minnesotta has re-elected Ramsey, and Michigan the drunken Chandler.

In Indiana the regular caucus nominee, Cumback was defeated, and Hon. D. D. Pratt chosen. The Democrats supported Hendricks the present Senator.

Hon. John F. Stockton, who a few years ago was voted out of his seat in the Senate by the Radical Jacobins, has again been elected from New Jersey.

J. H. Longenecker, Esq., will please accept our thanks for copies of the Daily Legislative Record, and other valuable documents.

A bill has been introduced into the United States Senate, the object of which is to afford relief to Mrs. Abraham Lincoln, who failed to make money out of the sale of the rich garments which were presented to her by army contractors and others who sought thus to curry favor with her husband. It is proposed by this to pension Mrs. L. as the widow of the Commander-in-Chief, he, by some legal fiction, being supposed to have been killed in battle. Upon such reasoning Congress might patriotically determine to provision the White House by ordering rations for President Grant, and increase his salary to any extent by allowing him to draw money in commutation for the rations. The skill with which the Radicals devise ways and means for depleting the treasury is really remarkable. If they want to give Mrs. Lincoln five thousand dollars a year, let them vote it straight out, without resorting to any silly subterfuge.

A Baptist minister from Boston preached in one of the Baptist Churches in this city last Sunday, and he spoke of Boston fourteen times in his sermon. In fact his sermon was most all about Boston and the war. If there were no Boston and no war, he would have no gospel, poor fellow.—He said however, that there are 40,000 young men in Boston who never go to church. We have no doubt the young men of Boston are great sinners, but we very much doubt if there are 40,000 young men in Boston. But we have ceased to look for much exact truth from political pulpits.—N. Y. Day-Book.

The Lobby.—The Alexandria Gazette always speaks to the point. It well says: "When a plan is now broached by any adventurer or schemer, or any 'ring' of the same sort, to be acted upon by and 'engineered' through Congress, the question is not whether it is constitutional, but, first, will it 'pay' the inventors, or enable them to pocket government money! Indeed, many of the persons engaged in these schemes for bleeding the treasury do not know what is constitutional or what is not—being the most ignorant as well as the most impudent of men! Their pretensions would be laughable if they were not often enabled, by collusion with accomplices, to effect their designs."

Pensions.—There have been, it is stated, 919 bills granting pensions to individuals offered during the present Congress. The House committee on pensions, it is announced, have now under consideration, and expect to report, a bill rearranging the pension laws. Among the amendments to the present law are provisions for a more efficient system of detecting frauds upon the government in the collection of pensions, and for the disposition of arrears of pension where parties have died, leaving pensions to which they were entitled. One clause prohibits a widow from transferring by will the arrears of her pension to the prejudice of the children of her deceased husband.

Carl Schurz has received the Radical nomination for United States Senator from Missouri. He is an avowed and outspoken infidel. Among other public utterances, he said, "God is only an imaginary gentleman who dwells beyond the clouds." "The Bible is a book only fit to amuse children." "The Sabbath is a relic of Barbarism." Such is the man whom "the party of great moral ideas" choses to represent it in the United States Senate. The choice is eminently proper and fitting.

The Detroit Post says that the small-pox is now very prevalent in the Western cities. A hundred deaths a day have been reported in Cincinnati; it is declared to be an epidemic in St. Louis, it is scourging Chicago, though nothing is said about it in the newspapers; and in Milwaukie the public schools and the rink have been closed in consequence, and the shutting up of the theatres, concert saloons, and other places where people most do congregate has been discussed.

Seven counterfeiters were arrested in New York last week, and $27,000 in counterfeit notes captured. Subsequently three other parties connected with the "ring" were secured.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Washington, January 19.

In the Senate, a memorial was presented from Maryland asking for universal suffrage—that is, to allow both whites and blacks to vote at all elections. After the introduction and reference of several bills, the copper tariff bill was taken up, when a lively debate ensued, in which Messrs. Vickers and White, of Maryland, took an active part. The bill was amended and then passed.

The House passed the bill to preserve the purity of elections in the several Territories.

Washington, January 20.

In the Senate, bills were introduced to reorganize the grade of general officers in the army, and for the reduction of the military force. The bill to reorganize the general officers of the army retains the general at the same pay; makes three lieutenant generals, at reduced pay; nine major generals, at reduced pay; abolishes the brigadiers, and provides that in time of war brigades shall be commanded by colonels, selected for merit. The bill of Mr. Sherman, in favor of the proposed charter by Congress of a railroad through to New York, was taken up, and led to an interesting debate. Senator Whyte, of Maryland, made an able speech in opposition to the bill, and on the general subject of the power of Congress to charter rail-roads in States. He read a letter from Gov. Bowie, president of the Baltimore and Potomac railroad, confirming the fact that the road is to be completed to Washington by the 1st of January, 1870. The last annual report of the company, made in September, 1868, states that the contract called for the construction of the road to Upper Marlboro' by the time above stated.

The House passed a bill to restrict and regulate the franking privilege, and also a bill removing political disabilities from several citizens of Virginia and other Southern States.

Washington, January 21.

In the Senate, Mr. Sherman, from the finance committee, reported a substitute for the bill amending the national currency act. The "air-line" railroad bill was taken up, amended, and discussed at considerable length. Mr. Vickers of Maryland, made an able speech in opposition to the power of Congress to charter. The section providing for railroads to Cleveland and Cincinnati was stricken out, so that the bill only provides for a road from Washington to New York. An amendment, however, was also adopted that the Baltimore and Potomac railroad should form a part of the air-line road to New York. Other amendments were pending at the hour of adjournment.

In the House, a bill was passed providing for the appointment of midshipmen in the Naval Academy from the Southern States. It provides that members of the present Congress may make nominations for their respective States prior to May, 1869, in cases where congressional elections do not take place until later than that period. The contested election from Missouri was debated at length, and resulted in declaring that Mr. Anderson, the sitting member, and not Mr. Switzler, the contestant, was entitled to his seat.

Washington, Jan. 22.

The Senate to-day was prolific of important and able speeches, but barren of a single act of legislation. The moring hour was extended to 2 o'clock in order to allow Messrs. Frelinghuysen and Morton respectfully to assail and defend the latter's bill prohibiting States from taxing railroads per capita on passengers. This disposed of, the Airline Railroad bill came up, and Senator Doolittle delivered a long, eloquent, and very powerful speech against it. Not so much against the bill itself as agaist the whole system of extra-constitutional legislation, of which the measure is a specimen.—Then, speaking to the bill, he so thoroughly reviewed the speeches of Messrs. Sherman and Morton that he had them continually on their feet in attempted reply. Mr. Doolittle's speech, in its whole scope, is esteemed the ablest of the session, if not in his lifetime. The galleries were crowded and attentive to the last degree while he spoke. The Senate then inconclusively debated whether to agree to the conference committees' report relating to Registers in Bankruptcy taking testimony in cases of contested elections, and then adjourned, in order to stave off an executive session, which several Senators were anxious should be held.

The House to-day took up the bill granting additional subsidies to the Kansas Pacific Railway, but came to no vote. The lobby says they will carry the day when the time comes. Mr. Barnes, of New York, attempted to report a bill to prevent the banks from locking up greenbacks, but a single objection ruled it out, and it remains in the Committee on Banking and Currency. The day's proceedings were closed with the Congressional funeral, in heavy manuscript, of the late Mr. Hinds, M. C. from Arkansas.

Washington, January 23.

In the Senate, to-day, resolutions of the New York Chamber of Commerce were presented protessting against any further extension of the bankrupt law. Mr. Hendricks submitted an amendment to be acted on when the joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution comes up. It provides that no amendment shall be considered ratified by any State Legislatures unless some of the members shall have been elected after such amendment shall have been proposed by Congress. A resolution was offered removing persons holding civil offices in Virginia and Texas who cannot take the oath prescribed by act of Congress. The air-line railroad bill was taken up and debated at some length.

In the House a bill was introduced authorizing married women in the District of Columbus to possess property in their own right. The constitutional amendment in regard to suffrage was called up, and Mr. Boutwell made a speech in advocacy of the measure. The amendment was ordered to be printed.

The Whipping-Post in England.

At Leeds, on the 4th instant, three men, who had been convicted of garote robberies, received twenty-five lashes each with a cat-'o-nine tails, in the central hall of the borough jail. A new triangle much stronger than the one hitherto in use, was employed and the prisoners were secured to it so firmly that the struggles of two of them scarcely caused the least vibration in the solid timbers. The first man flogged was John Edwards, aged thirty-six, who took the first two or three strokes of the cat very coolly, but the fourth elicited a scream of "O!" and dreadful groans and howling proceeded from him until he had received seventeen of the whole twenty five lashes. At the end of twelve strokes a second jailer handled the cat. For the last half-dozen lashes he was perfectly quiet, and when free walked firmly back to his cell. Joseph Robinson was the next delinquent brought to the whipping post. He was full of fear from the first. Not only did he groan deepiy, but he exclaimed despairingly, "Stop off," "Murder." "Pull me off, and I'll never do it again." He showed throughout more feeling than either of his fellow garoters. When he was unloosed he fell into the arms of the attendants, and crawled back to his cell. The next prisoner was Solomon Robinson, aged nineteen, who went to the ordeal with evident determination to put on an appearance of bravado. Though the youngest of the victims he was infinitely the most self-possessed. He never uttered a sound from the first stroke to the last.

It is reported that Baron Gerolt, Prussian minister, and Secretary Seward are at present engaged framing a treaty between the United States and Prussia for the benefit of emigrants coming here from that part of Europe. It is proposed to station in New York a Prussian agent, who, in conjunction with a designated officer of this government, and in correspondence with a board of commissioners, shall protect the interests of Prussian subjects and save them from many dangers to which they might otherwise be exposed.

We believe we have before alluded to the fact that Gen. Grant is admitted to be worth $300,000. But eight years ago he was not worth one dollar. So, in eight years, he has absorbed $300,000 of the public money. How many poor men send their children to bed hungry, for having to spend their earnings to pay the interest on this money, which has gone into Grant's pockets?

PERIODICALS.

The Old Guard for February.—The high tone and vigor of this sterling Democratic Magazine, which was so marked in the January number, is still more apparent in the present issue. The Old Guard wears well, not only sustaining the reputation which its six year's publication has won, but it improves like good wine, the older it grows. The February issue is replete with political, literary, and miscelaneous matter. "Religious Inequality of Human Races," by the Editor, is especially worthy of atttention. "The Cub of the Panther," by W. Gilmore Simms, Esq., keeps up its interest. "Forgotten English Poets," "The First Edition of Shakespeare," and "Mohammed as prophet, are readable, and the Book and Editor's Tables were never better. Single copies, 25c.; $3.00 per annum. Van Evrie, Horton & Co., 162 Nassau street, N. Y.

The Lady's Friend for February.—A beautiful steel engraving, "Yes or No," illustrating a story by Miss Douglas, leads off the February num of this charming magazine. Then follows the usual large and elegant Fashion Plate; and a graphic engraving of "Detective Butterby Summing up the Points of the case." This latter is an illustration of Mrs. Woods new story. There is also a sweet piece of music called "Beautiful Eyes," and the usual large number of engravings illustrative of the fashions, dresses, ladies' work, &c., &c. Published by Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia, at $2.50 a year.

Demorest's Young America.—This sprightly little Magazine has entered prosperously upon the third year of its existence, and become an indispensable visitor in all those households where it is known. There are many other juvenile periodicals, some older some younger than this popular favorite, but there are none for the children like "darling" Young America, so we must, perforce, believe it to be the best, and congratulate the publisher on the great success of his little undertaking. $1.50 Yearly. Published at 838 Broadway, New York.

The "Riverside Magazine" for February, opens with a frontispiece by that established favorite, H. L. Stephens, who gives in a series of scenes the well known story of the "Three Little Kittens that lost their Mittens." Mrs. Week's story of "White and Red" introduces the historic character "Hole-in-the-Day," whose picture is given. The "Riverside" is eminently what it pretends to be, a magazine "for Young people." The January number which we should like to have, has never reached us. Published by Hurd & Houghton, New York. $2.50 a year.

The Nursery, for February, has been received. This we consider the best number yet published, and the publishers promise to beat it. Parents you can make your children, under twelve years old, happy and delighted, by subscribing for this excellent monthly for youngest readers. Send and get a specimen number for 15 cents. Address John L. Shorey, 13 Washington st., Boston.

A Valentine.—The enterprising publishers of Hearth and Home will present to every person who buys a copy of their excellent journal, bearing date February 16th., a beautiful engraving from a recent German picture. The same number of the paper will also contain a large valentine picture by Nast.

The New Coins.—Shall we ever have a fixed style of small coin? Ever since the establishment of a government mint, each successive director has tried his hand at the matter, and it may safely be said that the United States boasts a greater variety of small coin than any nation on the face of the earth. We are glad to learn that the House Committee on Coins have decided, and will, next week, report in favor of adopting new coins of nickel and copper in place of the present two, three, and five cent pieces. The devices on the new coins will be the same as on the old ones—the difference in other respects will be in the numerals, size, and weight.

This Year and the Methodists.—The year 1869 is destined to be the most important in the annals of American Methodism. During the year the people will be called upon to decide whether or no they will accept the measures proposed to them by the General Conference, for the admission of lay representatives to that assembly and the Annual Conferences. It is also an important fact that a new constituency has been created by the late General Conference; all members of the church over twenty-one years of age, whether men or women, will be eligible to vote upon this question.

Interesting to Farmers.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that farmers have no right to have their grain manufactured into flour in any manner, without paying a license to the Government, and if they do, they are liable to the penalties provided by law. We mention the fact for the benefit of those who may be interested in knowing it. Day by day the people are becoming more and more acquainted with the face of the tax collector, and we are growing more familiar with the ramifications of the Internal Revenue law.

Small Fruit Wines.—To make good wine from blackberries, strawberries, rasberries, currants or gooseberries, is a simple process. Mash the fruit fine in a gallon of boiling water, to each gallon of fruit, add four pounds of sugar, and, after standing twenty-four hours, strain and put into a cask and deposit in the cellar. If, after fermentation, it should be racked off and corked up in bottles, all the better; but it will do to rack it into another cask, in which it will keep very well though on tap for the year. The cost of this wine, including a fair price for the berries, will be about thirty-five cents per gallon.

Postage Stamps.—Complaints are at present made that the postage stamps now in use are very carelessly prepared. It is asserted that the mucilage is very poor, and that the punuturing machine by which the stamps, when in sheets, are prepared for easy separation, has been so far increased in size that an unseemly wide border detracts largely from its appearance, is left about the stamp.

Plantation Bitters, combine rare medicinal virtues with a delicious aroma, and a flavor grateful to the palate. It is purely vegetable, and in its composition all the requisites of science have been complied with. It is suitable for all ages and sexes. It is gentle, stimulating and soothing. All dyspeptic disorders are cured by it, and it repairs and restores nature's wasted powers. Plantation Bitters are increasing daily in favor with all classes. It relieves suffering, renders life a luxury, brightens the present, and throws a hopeful light on the future.

ALMOST AN ACCIDENT.—Late on last Saturday night a youth bewildered by benzine and almost frenzied from fright, told a terrible tale of a dire disaster, the scene of which he located on Thomas street. It appears that he and another youth, whose name, in the excitement of the moment he had forgotten, were passing along said street to Pitt, and the said street being then and there somewhat too narrow for their nocturnal perambulations, they ventured beyond its limits and came upon the platform of an old well, the planks of which, (like those of some political organizations) had from long usage become decayed, when, as ran the story of the excited youth, his chum broke through and went to the bottom, crying for help, which informant was unable to give. To rescue his friend from this perilous condition, he gave the alarm aforesaid. Considering his condition, grave doubts were entertained as to the correctness of the story, yet a party of stalwart men and brave, accompanied by "ye local" who was itching for an item, proceeded to the spot and found the platform sufficiently broken to admit the body of a man. The story might be but too true, thought we. Experiments, well known to science, were made to ascertain if any one had really gone through the aperture in the platform. All efforts proving fruitless, it was resolved to postpone further investigation till morning. When Sunday came and the benzine had evaporated and the youth had shaken himself together, his recollections of the incidents of the evening before were more vivid. He remembered of having himself staggered upon the platform, broken through and been rescued from a sudden and unexpected plunge into the bowels of terra firma. He had mistaken the man. He had been chasing a phantom, and was on the verge of making a first class local for us, and a melancholy end to his existence.

Moral—Beware of benzine, especially if your business calls you to the vicinity of dilapidated wells.

ADVERTISE YOUR SALES OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.—Every spring there are many sales of personal property in Bedford county. They are generally advertised by hand bills alone. The most efficient means of calling the attention of buyers to their vendues is neglected by a majority of sellers. They do not seem to be aware of the fact that a sale advertised in the newspapers of the county, is brought before the immediate notice of hundreds who never see the bills which have been so carefully posted in taverns and other places. When asked to advertise their sales in newspapers, many people object on account of the expense. They forget that a single additional bidder on any one article of value, will realize from twice to ten times the amount an advertisement in the newspapers would cost. In other sections of Pennsylvania the people are wiser, and some of our exchanges come to us with long columns full of advertisements of personal property sales. Any man who tries it, will be abundantly satisfied of the wisdom of his act before his sale is half over. He will find in the large crowds of bidders present, a corroboration of all we have said, and when he comes to count up his gains, will give the newspaper credit for many dollars which he would not otherwise have received. Our job office is unsurpassed, and we get out bills that cannot be excelled; but an advertisement in the GAZETTE will do more to draw a large crowd of good bidders to a sale than any number of the handsomest bills that can be printed. Try it, and you will certainly be convinced of the truth of what we say.

SLIGHTLY MIXED.—The Fulton Republican under the head of "Philadelphia Murders" says the following; "There are more criminals charged with murder, awaiting trial, than in any other city in the United States. Scarcely have the citizens got over the scare and horror of the "Hill" murder, than they are startled by the murder of Mr. Rogers, under the most atrocious circumstances. To say nothing of the bad grammar, as a news item this is decidedly rich. The "atrocious" murder of Mr. Rogers took place in New York, a small village in a neighboring State, of whose geographical existence the editor of the Republican no doubt has no knowledge. He is about as well informed on the current news of the day as he is on politics. Poor fellow! he can't help it.

THAT FAMOUS BIRD.—The Express Office was the scene of considerable excitement the other day, which was caused by the presence of a rara avis in the shape of a live eagle, which had been brought from Fulton county by Mr. Harry Hutton. His birdship was honored by the visits of many who had never seen a specimen of this bird made famous in Fourth of July orations and song. This one, in possession of Harry is a fine specimen of his tribe, but as we are not well enough booked in Ornothology we will not venture the opinion as to whether he belongs to that species so closely allied to the Star Spangled Banner.

See advertisement of Dr. C. N. Hickok in another column for building plans, &c. We need say no more to recommend the Doctor's skill as an artist than to remind the public that he is the architect of the Union School House, so universally admired, and of the new Episcopal Church now in course of erection and which promises to be a queen of architecture.

EASTMAN & KENDALL.
65 Hanover Street, Boston, Massachusetts, Licensed Wholesale Dealers by the U. S. Established 1864.
The goods sold by us are described in printed slips or checks, which are sent to any address at the rate of ten cents each, in clubs of ten, twenty, thirty, forty, sixty, one hundred, one hundred and fifty, two hundred, &c. For a dollar the receiver can buy the article described in the check, or exchange it for any one of two or three hundred other articles in our circular. As a guarantee of the worth of every article sold by us, any article on our checks can be exhanged for a White Bed Quilt or a Silver Plated Revolving Table Castor, with Five Bottles. Read what the great paper of the Northwest, Toledo Blade (Nasby's paper), says of us:—
"What We Saw at The Hub.—Curiosity led us, while recently in Boston, to visit the dollar establishment of Messrs. Eastman & Kendall. Their trade has become so immense that they now occupy four stories in the elegant block No. 65 Hanover Street. The name of this firm has become as 'familiar as household words' throughout the Middle and Western States, while as prompt and honorable business men they are endorsed by the best firms in their own city. Their Club system of selling goods has done more, we believe, during the past few years to keep down the prices of domestic articles in every day use, than all other influences combined. Most of their goods are manufactured expressly for them, as, for instance, cutlery made to their order in Sheffield, England, and imported in large quantities for their dollar trade alone."
Now is the time to get signers and send in clubs. Ladies specially wanted as agents.
Partial list of articles allowed as commission to any one sending in clubs:—
Club Of Thirty. [$3.] 21 yards of elegant bleached or unbleached cotton cloth. Photograph album, 100 pictures, elegant morocco binding, revolving oval band, silver plated table castor, 5 bottled, ladies' dress pattern, a ladie's richly-ornamented black walnut writing desk, fancy cassimere pants pattern, large white all linen table cover, white lancaster counterpane, 20 yards calico, alhambra red quilt, ladies' morocco shopping bag, good cottage clock.
Club Of Sixty. [$6.] 42 yards bleached or unbleached cotton cloth, fashionable dress pattern, 3 1-2 yards wool cassimere for pants and vest pattern, fashionable woolen shawl. White marseilles counterpane, lady's large genuine morocco shopping bag, lady's fashionable cloak pattern, pair good white woolen blankets, black alpaca dress pattern, 4 yards double width waterproof cloaking, 6 yards farmers' good wool frocking, set misses furs muff and collar.
Club Of One Hundred. [$10.] 66 yards good bleached or unbleached cotton cloth, one yard wide, lady's or gent's new silver hunting case watch, fashionable thibet dress pattern, elegant black alpaca dress pattern, one pair of good white woolen blankets, large size, ladies' fashionable double woolen shawl, two large, fine, bleached linen table covers, with one dozen large sized dinner napkins to match, 25 yards hemp carpeting, 4 1-2 yards fine cassimere for suit, one dozen ivory handled steel bladed knives and forks, one dozen Rogers' best silver plated forks on white metal, portable sewing and embroidering machine, 7 1-2 yards double-width waterproof cloaking, set of furs, muff and collar
It is impossible to give a complete list of goods, but agents desiring articles not named above, will please mention them, and we will accommodate them if possible. If you have a club ready, or intend to raise one for any other house, don't fail to send it to us, and at the same time ask for our New Circular and Mammoth Exchange List. Parties acting as agents for other dollar houses in this city, will please send us their address, and that of a dozen or so of their male and female friends, as we can make it for their advantage to do so.—Male and female agents wanted as usual.
SEND MONEY IN REGISTERED LETTERS in every instance, and we guarantee that it will come perfectly safe.
N. B. Our sale should not be classed with dollar jewelry sales and gift enterprises. Send to us for decision respecting our business by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, dated Washington, Nov. 4, 1868. If you want prompt returns for your money, send your clubs to

THE GREAT

SEWING MACHINE,

Its Wonderful Popularity Conclusive Proof of its Great Merit.

The increase in the demand for this valuable machine has been TEN FOLD during the last seven months of its first year before the public.

IT HAS NO EQUAL.

OUR NEW

FAMILY

SEWING MACHINE.

The superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either Family use or Manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

OUR NEW FAMILY MACHINE,

which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor, or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the Best Sewing Machine in existence. The machine in question is Simple, Compact, Durable and Beautiful. It is quiet, light running, and never before attempted upon a single Machine,—using either SILK, TWIST, LINEN OR COTTON THREAD, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Felling, Trimming, Binding, etc., are Novel and Practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.

CAPABLE OF PERFORMING A RANGE AND VARIETY OF WORK

New designs of the Unique, Useful, and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Machines manufactured by this Company, have been prepared for enclosing the new Machine.

A faint idea, however, can at best be conveyed through the medium of a (necessarily) limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine, by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival Machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branches or agencies for supplying the "Singer" Machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where Machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished. Or communications may be addressed to

CELEBRATED

BITTER CORDIAL.

This medical preparation is now offered to the public as a reliable substitute for the many worthless compounds which now flood the market. It is purely vegetable, composed of various herbs, gathered from the great storehouse of nature, and selected with the utmost care. It is not recommended as a CURE ALL, but by its direct and salutary influence upon the Heart, Liver, Kidneys, Lungs, Stomach and Bowels, it acts both as a preventive and cure for many of the diseases to which those organs are subject. It is a reliable Family Medicine, and can be taken by either infant or adult with the same beneficial results It is a certain, prompt and speedy remedy for DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, BOWEL COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, LOWNESS OF SPIRITS, FAINTINGS, SICK-HEADACHE, &c. For Chills and Fevers of all kinds, it is far better and safer than quinine, without any of its pernicious effects. It creates an appetite, proves a powerful digester of food, and will counteract the effects of liquor in a few minutes.

AYER'S

HAIR VIGOR,

FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.

THE GREAT DESIDERATUM OF THE AGE.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one Medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, LISTLESSNESS, LANGUOR and LOSS of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For LIVER COMPLAINT and its various symptoms, BILLIOUS HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, JAUNDICE or Green SICKNESS, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For DYSENTERY or DIARRHŒA, but one mild dose is generally required.

For RHEUMATISM, GOUT, GRAVEL, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK and LOINS, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For SUPPRESSION a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this Sarsaparilla: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

Miscellaneous.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometime subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in no wise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or traveling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.
